

Generate added value through additional benefits: AEB professional services

ATLAS Consulting

The role of application management is to map and implement the business processes as successfully as possible.

Our service

Our ATLAS specialists will be happy to advise you on the new ATLAS releases. We will answer your specific questions e.g. special constellations in the area of the new functionalities.

Your benefits

You will be provided with ATLAS know-how in general and skills in regard to AEB's ATLAS solutions. ATLAS Consulting is offered either via phone or on-site at your company after having scheduled an appointment.

The options

- Normally via phone
- Also possible on-site

The requirements

None.

The costs

- Support via phone is invoiced according to expenditure. Minimum one hour, afterwards for each quarter of an hour.
- On-site: at least half a day plus travel expenses and allowances at AEB's usual rates.
